

WILLIAM S. HART PARK & MUSEUM FREE YOUTH FILMMAKING WORKSHOP

For Students
ages 10-17

Applications Due: June 28, 2013
Workshop Limit: 30 Students

This summer students ages 10-17 are invited to participate in a free, five-day filmmaking program at William S. Hart Park and Museum. Participants will spend a day learning about theatre and acting from Canyon Theatre Guild and four days creating a short silent film with instructors from the CalArts Community Arts Partnership (CAP). Students will have the opportunity to use the latest in filmmaking equipment. All participants must commit to attending all 5 workshop days, plus the screening event.

Workshop Location:
Hart Hall
William S. Hart Park & Museum
24151 Newhall Ave.
Newhall, CA 91321

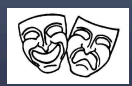

Workshop Dates and Times:
July 13, 20, 27, August 3 & 10, 2013
10:00am to 4:00pm

Culmination Screening:
Saturday, September 14, 2013
2pm
CalArts Bijou Theater (2nd Floor)
24700 McBean Parkway
Santa Clarita, CA 91335

For more information and application forms, please visit: <http://www.calarts.edu/cap>, contact CalArts/CAP at (661) 222-2708, or visit: <http://www.parks.lacounty.gov>

Sponsored by :

Los Angeles County Supervisor Michael D. Antonovich

Canyon Theatre Guild